In Case Of Emergency 9-1-1

In each unit, there is a button for emergencies. When this button is pushed, it is supposed to notify the guard gate that there is an emergency.

However, due to equipment problems and the age of the equipment located in each unit, the system is not working properly. Therefore, if you experience an emergency, you need to call 911. Do not rely or use the button in your unit.

Your Guest List

There is no longer a permanent guest list. The new Wynmoor Gate System brings greater security to our community. Unit owners or tenants are responsible to call in their guest, including aides/nurses, cleaning people, personal transportation, realtors, contractors and vendors.

SUPPER CLUB

By Lynne List

What a treat is in store for us when on Thursday, March 19th and Friday, March 20, 2020 the Supper Club presents the Curtain Call Playhouse's production of the hilarious Musical Comedy, MidLife - The Crisis Musical. This show consists of a number of clever skits (like Menopause) about midlife maladies, for both men and women. Witty songs and vignettes examine the frustrations of mammograms, love handles, proctology exams, reading glasses, menopause and much more. It is guaranteed that the humor will have you laughing at the middle age situations to which you can relate.

Prior to the show, Old Florida Catering will be serving you a fantastic sit-down plated dinner. It will start with a glass of wine (BYOB if you want more), followed by a salad of mixed field greens, tomatoes, cucumber and olives, and a main dish choice of Chicken Marsala or Salmon in Lemon Dill Sauce with rice pilaf, and baby carrots. The dessert is an éclair and a sugar free one is available by special order. Naturally, there is soda, coffee, hot tea, and dinner rolls.

So, you will have a wonderful dinner and a full Broadway show by a professional cast for only $35 per person, tax and gratuities included. All of this is right here in Wynmoor in the West Wing so there is no busing involved. Seating is at tables which hold up to 9 people. There are a few tables available for 10.

In September, flyers and order forms will be emailed to former patrons and advanced purchasing for them will be available until December 2nd. Starting in December, order forms will be placed in the Country Club Library Carousel and advanced purchasing will be available until the end of January. In February, tickets will be sold in the Country Club Library every Monday and Wednesday afternoon until March 9th. Tables are assigned on a first come/first served basis so get your order in early for the best seats. You may order anywhere from 1 to 9 tickets.

Don't miss out on this hilarious musical. Watch your emails next month.

Unfortunately, I have bad news about the drama. Due to date conflicts and restraints, the Curtain Call Playhouse can only perform Terms of Endearment in May in Wynmoor. Since all our Snowbirds are gone by that time, it doesn't seem practical to offer the show so late in the Season. Hopefully, next Season, we will be able to offer a drama again. For those of you who wish to see the show, I will give you a list of venues where you might go.

Remember, if you are not presently on our mailing list, send your email and name to LLIST@juno.com and write "Supper Club" in the subject line.

Mooning At Bear Lake

By Lawrence E. Correia

In the Summer of 1989, I took my family on a trip to Provo, Utah to visit my brother Steven and his family. I must admit, Utah is a beautiful state with majestic mountains, a great Salt Lake and two very awe-inspiring canyons (Bryce and Zion). After three days seeing the sites, I made arrangements for both our families to spend several days at a timeshare on the Southern end of Bear Lake.

This lake shares two states. The Northern half is in Idaho and the Southern half is in Utah. To the West of the Lake, lies several rolling hills and to the East, a series of mountains that are part of the Grand Tetons in Wyoming. The waters of this lake are so pristine, calm and beautiful that it takes one's breath away. I must admit that I fell in love with the place.

Once we were all settled at the apartment, the next day, we drove East to Dinosaur National Park to satisfy the desires of my son and Steve's daughter. I must admit, I was also very curious and desirous to see the fossils at the park. It turned out to be a great day. On the drive back to the timeshare, I thought it would be a great idea to rent a pontoon vessel and picnic on the lake the following day.

I was able to rent a pontoon boat and managed to stock up on food, drinks and other supplies necessary for a great day on the lake. In fact, all six of us were wearing bathing suits to have some fun in the sun. It seemed that even mother nature worked a miracle to make it a beautiful day. We packed all our supplies on the vessel and then had my son and Steve's daughter put on their life vests and boarded the pontoon, along with our wives. Steve and I then proceeded to push the pontoon further out into the water so when we start the engine, it would not chum up the soil of the lake. With that accomplished, Steve boarded the vessel and I was to follow.

Then the unforeseen happened as I was attempting to board the vessel. A projection caught on to the back of my swimming trunks. So, as I was going UP the ladder, the back of my trunks was going DOWN. In utter shock, I realized that I inadvertently mooned Bear Lake. I immediately back stepped and unhinged my trunks. All afternoon, my family good naturedly teased the dickens out of me for the mooning. In spite of the incident, we had a great time swimming and having a picnic on the pontoon. All I can say is that I apologize to all citizens of Utah and Idaho for the mishap.

Except for this incident, the day and the trip are something both families will never forget and that definitely includes the mooning.

A Day On The Trike

By Lawrence E. Correia

It has been some time since my wife Lynn mentioned her desire to have a bicycle as a tool for exercise. The only problem being that she had difficulty maintaining her balance on a two-wheeled bike. So, my method for solving this dilemma was to purchase a tricycle in the hope of finding an antidote to maintaining her balance. On Mother's Day, I purchased a Schwinn tricycle to meet my wife's exercise needs. Lynn absolutely loved this beautiful burgundy red vehicle with white stripes, a basket behind the seat, front and rear lights which is a delight to the eyes. My reward for presenting her with this gift was a smackadacious kiss and a heartfelt bear hug.

On the day we took out the trike for riding, it was agreed upon that I too will ride the trike after Lynn rode her laps. It was then we realized that though our legs were strong enough for walking the three-mile circle at Wynmoor, they did not have the muscular strength to apply the force needed to peddle for three miles. We then decided to tackle this problem in stages to build up our strength.

The solution to solving this problem of our weak leg muscles was to find an area suitable for doing things in stages. As it turns out, the area in which we live (Antigua II) has a circumference of half a mile. So, it was decided that we would each take two laps around Antigua for a distance of one mile, and planned to take our rides a 7:00 PM when it would be light and cool enough for the workout.

Man alive we really didn't realize how weak our leg muscles were peddling that first mile.

I can honestly say that it strengthened our resolve to accomplish the task we set for ourselves. Lynn stated, "let's continue riding one mile each evening for a week to build our leg muscles then increase our laps one extra half mile each week as our legs became stronger."

To make our struggle more enjoyable, on the second evening we brought our poodle, Coco along in the basket. At first, we were worried he might jump out but to our surprise, he merely put his head over the edge of the basket and took in all the sights. There we had this snow-white poodle, with his hair blowing in the breeze, delighting many of our neighbors as they watched him sitting in a basket being taxied about the development, and in style. Coco seemed to enjoy the entire experience, and to tell you the truth, his presence in the rear basket made our efforts bearable.

As it turns out, yesterday evening, we completed a week of 1-1/2 miles and tonight we'll begin our workout of 2 miles. I honestly believe that the one thing that gives us the drive to building up our strength and to keep going is watching Coco behind my wife and I as we continue to pedal on. To tell you the truth, his presence in the rear basket made our efforts bearable.

Safety Solutions

By Scotty Leamon

Public Safety Information Officer, Coconut Creek Police Department

They Can't Read Your Computer's Mind

I have noticed a few reports recently involving fraudsters targeting some Coconut Creek residents in the "computer repair" scam.

Here's how it works:

- 1) You get a phone call or an email that your computer is infected with a virus, that it's running too slowly, or any one of a myriad of other problems the scammer can make up.
- 2) The scammer claims to be in "tech support," and says he or she has the perfect antidote to all your computer woes and tells you they'll fix everything... for a price.

- 3) This is usually where the scammer will ask you to go out and buy gift cards and give them the numbers on the cards, which they say will pay for the "repairs." They might also try to convince you to give them personal information, such as your own credit card number.
- 4) The scammers get away with your money if you buy the gift cards and get you to give them all the numbers on it. If you give them your credit card information over the phone, they use that to charge items on your card.

If this ever happens to you, please ask yourself: "How did they read my computer's mind?" I mean, how did they all the sudden know to contact you out of the blue and have the perfect fix for your computer?

If you're like me, you think something's always wrong with your computer. Why is it running so slow? Why won't it download this picture any faster? What's up with this pop-up ad and where did it come from? Then I remind myself that maybe it isn't my computer. Maybe I'm just too impatient (which I am). It's not that there's anything wrong with my computer, it's that the bad guys will try to take advantage of that notion by offering solutions to problems that don't actually exist.

Here's how to avoid the computer repair scam:

- 1) If anyone calls or emails claiming to be some type of "tech support" from any type of company, just hang up. Remember to ask yourself: "How would they know about any issues with my computer in the first place?"
- 2) Invest in some good anti-virus software. Any computer store, or specialty store such as Best Buy, can help with options on what to install on your computer. You can also talk to a trusted friend or family member about ideas if they are a little more computer knowledgeable.
- 3) Log on only to secure websites. You can tell if a website is secure by looking for a little symbol that looks like a lock near the web address up at the top end of your screen.

The bottom line is be very skeptical when you get any type of phone call from some "knight in shining armor" claiming he can magically fix a problem you didn't even know you had. Remember that the scammers don't want to help you. They only want to help themselves to your hard-earned money.

Your updated information for the 2020 Wynmoor Social Registry is needed.

NEW INFO: You CAN be included WITHOUT a phone number! See page 22 for more info

Kevin Rader

State Senator, District 29

Dear Friends,

I hope you all are still enjoying the Summer, but I want to remind you that we are in Hurricane Season until the end of November. As you may recall, four hurricanes have made landfall in Florida in the last three years, including Hurricane Michael which was the first Category 5 since Hurricane Andrew in 1992. In my previous article, I explained the importance of being hurricane ready by making a plan, building a kit, and staying informed. I will expand on the topic by focusing this article on planning for your home before a hurricane reaches land and emergency numbers that may prove helpful.

Hurricane Home Preparedness

Much of the damage that hurricanes cause tends to be at the exterior of the homes due to high wind speeds. Some efforts can be made as a precaution to reduce harm to your home. It is recommended by the Florida Division of Emergency Management to reinforce five critical areas: roof, straps, windows, doors, and garage doors. Wind research has found that by taking steps to protect these areas, home exteriors are strengthened, which causes less damage by wind or debris.

Furthermore, it is also suggested that you bring lightweight and loose objects (such as patio furniture and garbage cans) inside to prevent them from becoming projectiles in high winds. Not all outdoor items are safe indoors (for instance, propane tanks), so be sure to anchor them well. Lastly, it is a good idea to remove or trim trees that are close to homes or buildings.

Emergency Numbers

- State Assistance Information Line: 1-800-342-3557
- American Red Cross: 1-866-GET-INFO (438-4636)
- FEMA Helpline: 1-800-621-3362
- Florida's 2-1-1 HelpLine: 211
- Florida Power and Light: 1-800-4-OUTAGE (68-8243)
- Florida Department of Transportation: 511

A Big Thank You

This is to thank the two good Samaritans who helped me on June 27, 2019. While walking on Wynmoor Way with my cane, at 4:30 PM, a woman in a white SUV stopped and tried to speak to me but I could not really hear her due to my hearing loss and the sun shining in my eyes, so I stepped from the sidewalk down the grassy area. I guess she wanted to help drive me to my apartment but I declined and started to walk to the sidewalk. Not realizing the grassed area was on a slope, I missed my footing and fell on the sidewalk. At that point, a car in back of the SUV stopped, the driver got out and also came to my aid. This gentleman then sat me in his car and drove to my apartment 1 block away, parked and made sure I could walk to the elevator. Fortunately, I only got a "boo-boo" of a badly scrapped knee cap. Again, thank you so much for your help.

Savoring Fine 20th Century Art At Sacramento's Crocker Art Museum

By Barry Isaac

In late June, Annette McKinney and I went to Sacramento, the capital of California. We visited the wonderful Crocker Art Museum. Since the Crocker Art Museum is relatively large, this review is limited to its fine collection of 20th Century Art, primarily by American Artists. Many of the paintings that we enjoyed had California subject matter such as: John Gamble's, "Spring Flowers," William Jackson's, "Poppyfield On Bay," Paul Sample's, "Port Of Stockton," Arthur Rider's, "Bells Of San Capistrano," a paragon of California Impressionism, Arthur Mathews' "Vision Of Saint Francis" with its California scenery, and Maynard Dixon's, "Glacial Meadow." Other 20th Century paintings that captivated us from its permanent collection were: William Clapp's, "fine Pointillistic painting, "Desert Bridge, Holbrook," Conrad Buff's" with its unique thread-like brushstrokes, "Canyon de Chelly." Masami Terooka's, "Tale Of 1,000 Condoms," Christopher Brown's, "Winter Blue Cold," Irving Norman's punctilious, "Celebration," Gregory Kondos' "Rutherford Vines," and Contemporary Artist, Wayne Thiebaud's, "Boston Creme Pies" and "Streets And Shadows." We also were fascinated with these delightful paintings that had political subject matter: Roger Shinomura's, "Nightwatch," pertaining to the detention of Japanese-Americans, during World War II and Richard Notkin's, "All Nations Have Moments Of Foolishness."

The temporary exhibit pertaining to the very inventive creations of Richard Jackson was also very special and whimsical. We relished his depiction of bears urinating in his clever work, "Pump Pee Doo," as well as his creations, "Big Girl" and "Dick's Big Duck," perhaps satirizing Donald Duck.

So, it was a pleasure to be among so much treasure at Sacramento's Crocker Art Museum.

Arthur Rider's "Bells of San Capistrano"

If You Now Have Equity In Your Home, Consider Doing A Trust

By Martin Zevin, Attorney

In 2012, I wrote an article recommending against doing a Revocable Living Trust if you were “underwater” with your mortgage. Many of my clients had bought or refinanced from 2004 to 2006 at the top of the market.

However, the last seven years have seen significant increases in property values. This has resulted in many homeowners now having positive equity. If prices continue to rise, many more homeowners will have some positive equity.

In the article I wrote in 2012, I advised clients to live long enough to see their properties increase in value to exceed the amount of the mortgage. At that time, they could come back to me to discuss a Revocable Living Trust. That time is now here.

Without equity in your home, it does not make sense to pay an attorney the fee and costs involved in creating a Trust, since you would be burdening your heirs with a property that has a negative equity. However, once that equity turns positive, you are doing your heirs a favor by eliminating the time and money involved in going through probate. Probate can take a year and cost thousands of dollars in fees and costs.

Remember also that the Trust is called a “Revocable Living Trust.” This means that, as long as you are alive, the Trust remains with you. You can always sell your home and buy a new home as Trustee of your Trust. You do not need to change the Trust unless you want to change the beneficiaries for the new property. You can also buy additional properties, in Florida or out of state, as Trustee of your Trust.

Therefore, if you now have equity in your home, you should seriously consider creating a Trust. Transferring your home to the Trust will not change your homestead or your real estate taxes.

In addition, regardless of the equity in your home, it is extremely important to have current advance care directives to protect you if you are incapacitated. These include the Durable Power of Attorney (which must specifically include the address of your property) as well as the Designation of Health Care Surrogate and Living Will. New Florida laws could mean that your current documents need to be revised.

Please feel free to call me for a free personal or phone consultation regarding any issues pertaining to Wills, Trusts, Deeds, Probate, Power of Attorney or Health Care Surrogate. I am also available for free consultation regarding personal injury claims or car insurance coverage. Call me at 954-569-4878. My address is 3275 W. ### Sisters

By Lil Miller

*My sister does not have to be of kin!
But one who dwells in the heart within.
A neighbor, a friend, or one who lives far away!
That will share her thoughts and deeds of the day!
Comparing notes, bringing smiles and
Sunshine your way!
Maybe she bakes bread!
And you swap a flower bringing chatter and kisses that soon follow!
We are all sisters and brothers, and need a handshake and hug
to make rainbows appear on a dreary day!*

In The Land Of The Free

By Leah Miller

*I watch T.V.
CNN
MSNBC
People in cages
Dead babies
Concrete floors as a bed
No room to lie down
Or food and water ... toilets,
People crowded up against each other
T.V. cannot yet transmit odor
Yet it was the stench
That got me
I can still smell it.*

Special Angels

By Lil Miller

Special angels come in many disguises, many shapes, forms and sizes. A letter, phone call, ride or a helping hand to the needy. We are too busy or lost in self to notice their presence in our day! They are the caretenders of the soul, whose strength we take without being told. They seek no glory or praise for what they do! Just giving it all away to you. Faith, love and love – giving daybreak another day! Their shoes would be hard to fill – unless you feel this special thrill!

No matter what condition you might be in, just giving a smile or even a hug keeps the chain of special angels unbroken! Be that special angel – just for today. Gladden the heart in words you say – even the happy ones will have a better day.

Dr. Dina now offers FREE transportation to and from the office. Our staff will also assist in booking the rides for your convenience.

Don't Chase Last Year's Mutual Fund Category Winners

The world of mutual funds can be confusing. With more than 9,000 funds on the market, how can you choose the ones that are right for you?

One way to start is by considering the various categories of mutual funds and there are quite a few of them: Small Cap Growth, Large Cap Growth, Large Cap Value, Diversified Emerging Markets, Foreign Large Cap Blend and more. The list is extensive, and for many people, confusing.

However, with a little study, you can understand why these funds have their names. For example, a Small Cap Growth fund will contain stocks of smaller companies thought to offer growth potential. Once you know the goals of different categories of mutual funds, you can determine which ones fit into your overall investment strategy.

This is important, because you want to ensure your portfolio is appropriately diversified. For example, if you find that almost all of your mutual funds come from the above-mentioned Small Cap Growth category, you may be taking on more investment risk than you'd like, because funds that offer the greatest growth possibilities also usually carry the highest degree of market volatility. Typically, you may be better off owning an array of mutual funds drawn from several different categories, with the percentage each category occupies in your portfolio based on your goals, risk tolerance and time horizon. (Keep in mind, though, that while diversification can help reduce the effects of volatility, it doesn't guarantee a profit or protect against losses in a declining market.)

You might be tempted to choose categories by looking at which most recently outperformed the others, and just stick with those groups. But is this a good idea?

It probably isn't and the main reason you shouldn't chase performance this way is because things change very quickly in the mutual funds' arena. It's quite possible, and has happened many times, that the top category last year can fall into one of the worst-performing ones this year, and vice versa. Consequently, your efforts to capture a winning trend may be futile.

Of course, within the context of investing in various mutual fund categories, you still need to choose individual funds. And, as is the case with categories, you might be tempted to give considerable weight to a fund's track record. But, similar to the situation with fund categories, "chasing performance" is typically not a good strategy. After all, last year's "hot" fund may have cooled off considerably this year. Nonetheless, reviewing a fund's longer-term track record can help you understand how it might perform through the ups and downs of the financial markets. Always keep in mind, though, that past performance can't guarantee how the fund will perform in the future.

Mutual funds are popular investments and for good reason. Since each fund generally contains dozens of securities, you get a degree of diversification you can't achieve from owning individual stocks or bonds. And, as discussed above, you can diversify further by owning funds from several categories. Just remember, though, that as you build your mutual fund portfolio, don't get caught up in last year's results because old news just may not be that relevant today.

Mutual fund investing involves risk. Your principal and investment return in a mutual fund will fluctuate in value. Your investment, when redeemed, may be worth more or less than the original cost.

WYNMOOR Golf and Tips

By Kevin Battersby, PGA

Chipping Strategy And Technique

A chip shot is characterized by a ball that rolls on the green more than it flies in the air. Conversely, a pitch shot flies more in the air than rolls.

Typically, a chip is employed closer to the green without having to fly any bunker or rough. Your ball position should be based on your lie and distance to the pin.

Wynmoor has many uphill chips from the front of the green. With this in mind, an aggressive setup with the ball positioned near your trail foot and the handle more forward, will give you a lower trajectory and more solid contact. The contact will be more crisp and actually de-lofts the club you choose. If the pin is toward the middle or back of the green, this will help insure your chip has enough roll out to reach the hole.

Remember, “your worst putt is your best chip” strategy means choosing your putter on the fringe of the green should be more consistent when the fringe is level and relatively short grass.

On a more level lie with the pin closer, a more finesse chip would be to position the ball in the middle of your stance and less handle leaning forward for softer contact.

The ball further back in your stance always has the best click and contact so make sure you choose this percentage position when needed around the green.

City Matters

By Commissioner, Mikkie Belvedere

Happy birthday and happy anniversary to all celebrating this very warm August, the last of the Summer months. August 5th - 11th is also smile week. Try smiling at a neighbor. You may be surprised and receive a smile back.

Please don't forget that we are in Hurricane Season so be sure to have enough water and food for at least three days, fill up your car at regular intervals and keep cash handy. August is the time when the Commission meets only once instead of the usual two times a month.

The city keeps working on all levels. City Hall construction has been completed and work is continuing with solar for the roof and upgrading the City Manager's offices. We are not using tax dollars for this. Work will begin in the very near future on Lyons Road, street lights on both sides of Coconut Creek Parkway, and the beautification of the lake near Coconut Creek High School. You may also see the utility boxes covered with beautiful art work.

The city is very proud of our employees. We are a family. We believe in a culture of well-being. We give our employees time for exercise, get out and walk around City Hall, Weight Watchers, yoga and more. This year, the city employees won the Cigna highest workplace wellness designation called the "Outstanding Culture Of Well-Being" award. Three hundred and one organizations applied Nationwide, including twenty in our region and our employees were one of three winners.

Remember to make sure that any construction or renovation is approved by the architectural committee and all permits are properly posted on your window so that your neighbors and especially your Director are aware. Wynmoor has to abide by all city codes.

Medical equipment such as wheel chairs, walkers, canes and more are collected in our security office. They are donated to food for the poor to be shipped to Caribbean islands where needed. Please bring your equipment to the security office or call to have them picked up. Thank you.

Please remember to drive carefully every day but especially on August 14th, the first day of school.

Lots of students will be on the roads.

On September 21st, the Multicultural Circle Annual Artsfest will be taking place at the Coconut Creek Community Center. Come enjoy music, food trucks, artists, face painting, and more. The country featured this year is Germany for Oktoberfest.

I can be reached at 954-803-7696 for comments or questions. Have a great day and keep smiling.

Traffic Violations

The speed limit on Wynmoor Circle is 25mph. The speed limit in the villages is 15mph. There is absolutely NO PASSING on Wynmoor Circle and all STOP SIGNS MUST BE observed by residents and guests. All residents and guests are required to abide by Wynmoor Rules and Regulations.

Sheriff Gregory Tony

Service Equals Reward

By Sheriff Gregory Tony

Committed To Protecting Broward Schools

Public safety has always been my highest priority. In the eight months since becoming your sheriff, the Broward Sheriff's Office has worked hard to address one of the greatest concerns of Broward County: school safety.

BSO deputies have undergone intensive training in preparation for any public safety threat. We are working together with the school system to ensure our schools are a safe place to learn for every child in every school. We have made changes, but we will not rest on our accomplishments; we will continue to find better ways to protect our schools.

In response to the recommendations of the MSD Commission, we introduced new proactive initiatives throughout BSO. We forged federal partnership agreements with the FBI, FEMA and the Department of Homeland Security training divisions, focusing on active shooter and rapid response training. We have established a Threat Management Division and improved the way we gather intelligence and respond to potential threats. We now have cutting-edge technology to identify and investigate potentially dangerous threats to our community. An extension of that division is the Real Time Crime Center (RTCC), which allows for real-time monitoring and analysis of important investigative information during a critical incident. We also have direct access to video surveillance systems that monitor nearly 10,000 cameras in all Broward County schools.

Recently, BSO partnered with SaferWatch, an innovative mobile app that allows users to report non-emergency incidents and crime tips in real time directly to BSO. The app covers more than 440 public, charter and private schools in Broward County and gives students, parents and teachers the ability to submit photos, videos, audio files or text messages anonymously. The information is immediately sent to BSO for appropriate action. It also provides our law enforcement districts with the ability to communicate important real-time information directly with residents. Whether it's a crime prevention tip, safety alert, traffic advisory or other important information, SaferWatch alerts will be sent directly to your mobile device for immediate notification. I encourage all of our residents to download the free SaferWatch app and subscribe to the BSO district closest to them. Download the app at BrowardAlerts.com

As the new school year approaches, I want to remind our community of some basic safety tips. When driving, approach all crosswalks in and around school areas with caution and do not text on your cellphone. It's the law. Observe the posted school zone speed limit. When walking or riding a bike to school, map out the safest route in advance and always remember to use a crosswalk. For more back-to-school safety tips, please visit sheriff.org/community

Although we have accomplished a lot in these last eight months, we are just getting started. I will never lose sight of our mission: to keep our community, especially our schools safe.

Nature And Arts Club

By Cindy Selmon

We hope you are all enjoying the Summer. The club Board has been planning the programs and trips for the 2019-2020 Season. Our Season runs from October through May. In a break with our usual practice, the first meeting will be held on October 17th (the 3rd Thursday of the month) to enable all our officers to attend. This change is a one-time only event.

Dues for the coming year will remain $15 per person. As of August 1st, dues may be sent to Sheryl Darby Scheiss at 3302 Aruba Way, Apt. J-2, Coconut Creek, FL 33066. Please list your full name if it is not on your check. (If you are Canadian, checks must be drawn on an American bank.) New membership cards will be given out at the first breakfast meeting that you attend.

Over the course of the few months, we will be introducing the new Board members and they will be telling you something about them. The first position that will be highlighted will be Publicity. The Publicity Chair submits Nature and Arts Club articles to NEWS AND VIEWS Magazine and THE INSIDER newspaper. In addition, she provides information about club activities to Channel 98. This position is currently held by Cindy Selmon. Cindy is a retired high school social studies teacher from Staten Island, N.Y. She loves the club because of the stimulating programs and friendly people. She and the other officers welcome everyone who enjoys learning more about what South Florida has to offer! If you have any questions, please contact Nancy Heller Moskowitz, President at 954-973-2181.

Needlework Click

By Barbara Bilello

Our August meetings are the second and fourth Tuesday, the 13th and the 27th. We meet in the West Wing from 1:00 PM - 4:00 PM. We serve coffee, tea and yummy snacks.

If you have new neighbors, bring them along. If anyone has yarn they no longer use, we will gladly pick it up. Call Barbara at 754-222-6375.

Remember, we donate everything we make to various groups. We just donated a lot of articles that we all made. They are as follows: Respect Life: 33 baby blankets, 49 hats, 1 set of booties and 1 sweater; the nursing home: 31 lap robes and 5 shawls; the homeless shelter: 14 blankets, 10 children's purses; Chemo hats: 137. It gives us great pleasure when we deliver all the items that we donate.

We want to thank all that donate items and all the yarn that we have received. It is greatly appreciated.

Enjoy the rest of the Summer. If you want to make new friends, please join us. We are a friendly group. We have crochets, knitters and chatters.

Wynmoor Hurricane Emergency Net

By Gerry Stoloff

Well, we've now completed our kick-off breakfast meeting and our first 3 weekly meetings on the air. We had 55 people at the breakfast meeting and at time of printing, we've already issued 8 new members their radios.

Although we had a record turnout, we're still short of people to fully cover every village. Our goal is to have at least one operator in each village, ideally with more than one so that they can share the coverage. The commitment we ask is to check in most Wednesday nights for 10-15 minutes for radio training and to be available to serve after the event of an actual weather emergency.

You don't need prior experience in using a CB radio. We'll teach you how to connect it up in your car and the weekly meetings will provide experience in proper communications procedures.

If you'd like to join us or you're a previous operator, please contact Gerry Stoloff at 954-973-4899 or come to the Country Club Clock Tower any Wednesday evening at 6:30 PM.

Writers Workshop

By Nancy Heller Moskowitz

Dear Writers, I'd like to remind all of you of some reasons why you would enjoy the Writer's Workshop. Purpose: To share in the love of writing. Meeting time: 10:00 AM - 12:00 Noon. Come join us each and every week all year long. For more information, contact, President, Nancy Heller Moskowitz at 954-973-2181.

The simple truth is that anyone who's recently retired, or close to retirement age, can't afford to ride out another stock market drop like the one that started in 2000 and took nearly 50% of some investors' portfolios, or the one that started in 2007 and took nearly 60% of some investors' portfolios.

2019 TRIM Notices

The Broward County Property Appraiser's Office mails the TRIM (proposed tax) Notices in mid-August each year. The proposed property tax notice will show your 2019 property assessment, exemptions and the proposed taxes along with dates and times for the various taxing authorities' public budget hearings. The TRIM Notice is your opportunity to review your property assessment and ensure you are receiving all the tax-saving exemptions you are entitled to. Our office's contact information will be listed on the newsletter enclosed with the TRIM Notice giving you the opportunity to contact us directly should you have any questions. The absolute deadline to apply for any 2019 exemption or to appeal your property assessment is September 18, 2019.

Many property owners ignore their TRIM Notice until it is too late to appeal an assessment, question the proposed tax rates or file for exemptions. If you wait until you receive your tax bill in November to inquire about your property assessment, you will lose your right to appeal. The first thing to know is your taxes are calculated using this formula:

TAXABLE VALUE x TAX MILLAGE RATES + SPECIAL ASSESSMENTS = TAX BILL.

The Property Appraiser determines the market value and assessed/Save Our Homes value of your property. Your tax rates and non-ad valorem fees are set by the various taxing authorities (School Board, County Commission, City Commission, Hospital District Board, Water Management District, and so on) listed on your TRIM Notice. If you want to question your proposed tax rates, non-ad valorem fees, special assessments or services, you should contact the elected officials who serve on these taxing authorities and attend the public hearings in September 2019.

Important: The Property Appraiser does not set your tax rates or collect your taxes. Your tax rates are set by the city and county Commissions, School Board, and other taxing authorities. Additionally, any PACE (Property Assessed Clean Energy) assessments are not included on the TRIM Notice but will appear on the November tax bill sent by the Broward County Tax Collector.

Why are my property taxes higher than the prior owner's last year?

Florida law requires property be reassessed at market value as of January 1st the year following a change in ownership and/or the year the property receives/loses the Homestead Exemption. After this reset in value occurs, the property will be protected by an assessment cap starting the following year. For Homesteaded property, the Assessed/Save Our Homes (SOH) Value can increase by no more than 3% above last year's Assessed/SOH Value (or the consumer price index, whichever is less), regardless of the increase in just value. For tax year 2019, the assessment increase is capped at 1.9% for all Homesteaded properties. For non-Homesteaded property, the assessed value can increase by no more than 10% above last year's assessed value. The 10% cap does not apply to the School Board taxes.

If my office can ever be of assistance to you, please do not hesitate to contact me directly at 954-357-6904 or by email at martykiar@bcpa.net

Benedict Arnold: Hero Turned Traitor

Arnold was a true hero who can be credited with saving and winning the Revolutionary War for the Americans. Very few gave the colonists any chance of winning. No country even considered siding with America.

General Burgoyne was advancing South through New York with 9,000 troops and General Howe was advancing North with 15,000 men to meet up with Burgoyne and destroy the Continental army. General George Washington ordered General Gates to stop Burgoyne in New York while he confronted Howe in the South. Benedict Arnold was assigned to Gates' command, and the two were badly suited for each other. Arnold was super aggressive on the battlefield and Gates, believing the Americans, could not stand toe-to-toe with English always opted for a defensive position. On the first day of battle at Saratoga, the British won the day. Arnold and Gates got into a screaming match over strategy. Gates relieved Arnold of his command and ordered him to return Washington's army.

When the second battle began, Gates hesitated to engage. Arnold had not departed and was still in camp. Observing the action, he was appalled at Gates indecisiveness. The Americans were taking it on the chin again. Arnold's blood boiled over to a smoldering rage that ignited. He raced to Gates and begged him to engage. Gates refused and told Arnold he had had enough of him and to get out. Arnold did what he did best. He acted.

Leaving Gates tent, Arnold jumped on his horse and headed for the front lines. Gates ordered men to give chase and stop him. Arnold reached his men first and they cheered his arrival. They did not know he was not in command and had no orders. Arnold rallied his men and led the charge. Even though two buildings were heavily defended, he charged straight between them. Those on the ground said it was a miracle he had not been hit with bullets that were whizzing all around him. Arnold broke the defenses of the Brits. They scattered and this opened a hole for colonists. This made it possible for Arnold's men to attack the main body of the English. It became a total rout of the English.

Unfortunately, a musket ball hit Arnold's leg and shattered it. To add insult to injury, his horse also was hit, and it fell crushing the leg that had just been broken. The Americans won the battle, captured General Burgoyne, his staff, 6,000 troops, their armaments, and all their supplies. It was a game-change victory for the Americans. They just defeated the best army in the world and captured much-needed supplies and weapons. This victory became the lightning rod that brought France into the war on the side of the Americans.

Along with Arnold's disagreeable temperament and his belief that he had been disrespected by both the army and congress, gave fertile ground for resentment and hatred grew towards the rebellion. Arnold was accused of crimes from misuse of government property to consorting with the enemy. Charges were brought up for a formal court-martial, but in the end, General Washington only reprimanded him. For Washington, Arnold was his "fighting general."

Arnold needed money. His gambling debts, lavish lifestyle, and marriage to a Tory sympathizer steered him to a road of betrayal. He asked to be the commandant of West Point which controlled access to the Hudson River. For 20,000 British pounds and a position in the English Army, Arnold attempted to turn over the fort to the British. He depleted the number of defenders at West Point and turned over sketches of the fortifications to the Brits.

At the last minute, the betrayal was discovered, but Arnold escaped to a British man-of-war. He was commissioned a general in the British army and fought against the Americans. In every one of his engagement against the Americans, Americans died. All for what, thirty pieces of silver? Now he is remembered as the most notorious traitor in America.

It is a tragedy when one person betrays another. Deep pain results in the hearts of those betrayed. Worse still is when someone is unfaithful to their own country. There are no words to express when a leader consorts with the enemy and your fellow citizens are tortured and die as a result. Comments can be made at chooserrightly.com under "article of the month."

How do you deal someone who betrays you?
How should a traitor to your country be treated?

Our Presence Heals!

Dear Reader,

When we make our sacred vows to our soulmates, how many of us really consider that we may actually be tested on our vows? Marriage offers the promise of closeness, companionship and comfort in good times and in bad, but often, we only hear of the challenges that marriage or any long-term relationship evokes. Yet recently, I got to experience first hand how incredibly wonderful it is to be loved, cherished and cared for in my darkest, scariest, most painful hour; to be loved, honored and protected when I really needed to be magnified. My love and devotion to my husband had reminded me of how genuinely powerful the presence of our loved ones is in the healing process!

My husband of 13 years and I were off on our Annual romantic weekend away from all of our responsibilities and enjoying a bike ride through a challenging hilly trail in the woods of Georgia. Going uphill took all the strength I could muster but going downhill was even more difficult! I was scared as my breaks didn't seem to be working properly and I felt my tires skid a few times. Even so, we pressed on enjoying the gift of admiring a deer in the woods and breathtaking babbling brooks and the sheer delight of being together in unknown terrain. About 90 minutes into our ride, we were going downhill when seemingly out of nowhere, the trail made a sharp left turn. I tried to break and turn hard at the same time with disastrous results! I completely wiped out! I felt myself fly off of my bike and then I crashed violently onto the concrete trail. The pain was more intense than anything I had ever experienced (worse than childbirth!). There was blood everywhere! My face, hands, arms and chest were all cut and simultaneously, screaming out in pain! Apparently, my upper body caught the impact and my leggings spared my legs. I was hysterically screaming for help and out of the woods came two angels disguised as golfers who quickly got my husband and I back to our resort. I was cleaned up and tended to by their medical personnel and left in the care of my husband. Fortunately, I didn't have any broken bones - just enough cuts to make me feel like the torn apart scarecrow from the Wizard of Oz. Pain medicines only took off the extreme pain but even lying STILL hurt!

Guess what was the only thing that brought me true comfort? Yep! My husband's presence! He patiently cleaned and gently re-wrapped all of my cuts twice a day. He brought me food and adjusted my pillows. He helped me dress and undress as I could not lift my arms. But even more touching than anything he did was how he acted when our vacation, as we envisioned it, shifted from a playful partnership to a caregiver/patient relationship. He acted as if he was the luckiest man on the planet to be able to be by my side and read his magazines and freshen my drinks and keep me company! Just having him near lifted my spirits and eased my suffering.

I was reminded of my childhood asthma days when my mom held me and I felt safe and was sure I would be alright in her care. This thought then led to my memories of my own children when they were younger and struggling with any illness. They all just wanted the same thing - mommy near! They would urge me to "hurry back" even when I just left their side to get more soup! All of a sudden, I understood the beautiful circle of love and how it is actually, in our more challenging moments, that we experience such gratitude towards those who love us so tenderly. I am more deeply in love with my husband now AFTER my accident than I was even before it happened. I'm in awe of how selfless he was and how great it felt to be truly adored when I felt anything but adorable!

Let's be reminded that our presence matters more to our loved ones than we can ever fully comprehend. Let's show up for those we love with more than food and flowers. Let's show up and stay awhile! Love heals! May we all experience the gift of true love! Be well my dear readers, Diana
